Senior U.S. Treasury and IRS Representatives

This conference provides a unique opportunity for the U.S. business community to interact with key representatives from the OECD Centre for Tax Policy and Administration and senior tax officials from the U.S. and other OECD countries. Panels will address current OECD tax projects and will include speakers from business, the OECD, and the U.S. and other governments.

Topics to be addressed include: Global Tax Administration Issues; Transfer Pricing – Intangibles; Permanent Establishment Issues; Tax Reform, Growth and Competitiveness; Improved International Tax Cooperation; Developments in Treaty Application; OECD Guidelines for MNEs; and Taxation and Development/Enlargement and Engagement Activities of the OECD. The program allows ample opportunity for attendees to express their views and network with OECD officials and panelists.

Please note that there is a fee for this conference. Registration will begin in February 2011.
