Bruce J. Berman is a partner in the law firm of McDermott Will & Emery LLP and is based in its Miami office. He is a member of the Firm's Trial Department, where his practice encompasses a broad range of commercial disputes, in federal and state trial and appellate courts and in domestic and international arbitration tribunals, involving substantive areas of law including corporate, federal and state securities, aviation, intellectual property (copyright, trademark, unfair competition and internet-related issues), health law, real estate, construction and commercial lending (real estate, asset-based and lease financing).

Scott A. Burr is an associate with Astigarraga Davis. His practice focuses on the representation of multinational corporations and foreign governments in international litigation and arbitration matters, including the recovery of assets procured through fraud and public corruption.

Gary E. Davidson is a partner with Rasco Reinger Perez Esquenazi & Vigil, P.L. in Miami, and has litigated and arbitrated complex domestic and international commercial cases throughout the United States, with a focus on the maritime, insurance, hotel, travel and real estate industries. Since 1999, he has also served as an adjunct professor on the faculty of Nova Southeastern University's law school, teaching courses on international litigation and travel law. Mr. Davidson has authored a number of law review and journal articles focusing on international and transport issues and has been a frequent speaker before a variety of legal and trade groups in the United States and in Europe.

Edward H. Davis, Jr. is a founding shareholder of Astigarraga Davis, and represents banking, corporate and governmental victims of serious fraud and grand corruption in the investigation and prosecution of civil fraud matters. His practice involves locating, freezing and recovering missing assets and funds in the United States, Latin America, the Caribbean and Europe with a special focus on so-called secrecy havens. He is a Certified Fraud Examiner and secretary to the International Law Section of the Florida Bar.

Georgina Fabian is a senior associate in the Chicago office of Mayer, Brown, Rowe & Maw LLP. Her practice is focused on international dispute resolution with a particular focus on international litigation and arbitration. A native of Mexico, she is authorized to practice law in the Mexican Republic, New York and Illinois. With broad experience in common and civil law, she has represented foreign and domestic clients in the United States and Mexico in international litigation and arbitrations under the ICC, AAA, ICSID, and ad hoc rules.

Daniella Friedman is a partner with the firm of Montello & Friedman, P.A. and specializes in complex commercial litigation, international litigation, and appellate law. She has extensive experience representing multinational companies, financial institutions, and business owners in complex business, shareholder, and real estate disputes involving multiple parties in state and federal trial and appellate courts.

John Fellas is a partner in the New York office of Hughes Hubbard & Reed LLP, practicing in the fields of international litigation and arbitration. He has practiced in both the United States and England. He is a member of the New York Bar and a Solicitor of the Supreme Court of England and Wales. He has served as counsel, and as chair, sole arbitrator and co-arbitrator, in arbitrations under the AAA, ICC and ad hoc rules. He also serves on the Mediation Panel of the District Court for the Southern District of New York and has been retained to act as an expert witness on United States law in proceedings in other countries, most recently by the United States Department of Justice.

Maurício Gomm F. Dos Santos is a practicing Brazilian lawyer and partner in Gomm Santos – Associated Lawyers, Curitiba, Parana, Brazil. He specializes in Brazilian arbitration law and has been involved in litigation and arbitration of commercial contracts, agency, distribution, franchising agreements, project finance, banking and insurance law. He has also served as arbitrator in international cases under Inter-American Commercial Arbitration Commission (IACAC) rules involving distributorship and agency agreements. He has lectured and taught arbitration courses in the Getulio Vargas Foundation in Rio de Janeiro and Sao Paulo, as well as the Pontifical Catholic University of Curitiba.

Enrique A. González Calvillo is the founding partner of González Calvillo, S.C. For over twenty years, Mr. González Calvillo has focused his practice on international and corporate law issues. He has extensive experience as both an arbitrator and mediator in proceedings brought under the auspices of several organizations, including the International Court of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce and México's National Chamber of Commerce. Mr. González Calvillo has served as México's representatives to a number of international organizations, including NAFTA's Commercial Dispute Consulting Committee.

Jonathan C. Hamilton practices in international dispute resolution with the global law firm of White & Case LLP. He has experience in ICSID, ICC and AAA/ICDR arbitrations and in matters before domestic and foreign courts. He has particular experience in the representation of sovereigns in foreign investment disputes. Based in Washington, D.C., Mr. Hamilton also has worked in the New York and Mexico City offices of White & Case and as a visiting lawyer with a leading firm in Peru.

Robert J. Hauser practices at the litigation firm Beasley Hauser Kramer Leonard & Galardi, P.A. in West Palm Beach. Mr. Hauser practices exclusively in the areas of commercial litigation, including commercial arbitration, health care litigation, and appellate practice. Mr. Hauser joined Tew & Beasley LLP (now known as Tew Cardenas LLP) in West Palm Beach as an associate in 1997. In December 1997, Mr. Hauser formed his present law firm along with James W. Beasley, Jr. Mr. Hauser is "AV" rated by Martindale Hubbell and is a member of The Florida Bar, the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida and the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit. He is a member of the Palm Beach County Bar Association (Appellate Practice Committee); the Palm Beach County Trial Lawyers' Association; and the Academy of Florida Trial Lawyers.

Daniel E. Karson has over 30 years experience directing investigations of business crimes and regulatory violations. His notable litigation support and asset search cases include investigations of Ferdinand Marcos (for the United States House of Representatives) and Jean Claude Duvalier (for the Republic of Haiti). In 1986, he launched Kroll's European operations, opening its office in London and serving as its first Managing Director. He also opened Kroll offices in Boston (1997) and Philadelphia (1998). Mr. Karson's practice areas include major investigations of fraud and cases involving litigation support, contests for corporate control, crisis management, asset searches, grey market diversion and due diligence. He served as Kroll's general counsel for eleven years.

Martin S. Kenny is the principal of the British Virgin Islands-based multi-disciplinary practice of Martin Kenney & Co., Solicitors. Mr. Kenney is a specialist investigative and litigation lawyer in multi-jurisdictional economic crime and international serious fraud. Offshore Alert of Miami has said that Mr. Kenney is "one of the world's leading authorities on the legal aspects of freezing and seizing assets in multiple jurisdictions." The Financial Times (US Edition) has called him a "top international asset chaser."

Luis S. Konski is a shareholder of the law firm of Becker & Poliakoff, P.A., based in the firm's Coral Gables office, and heads the firm's International Litigation Department.
