Senior Vice President, Washington
(202) 371-1316 or tdeal@uscib-dc.org

As head of our Washington office, Timothy Deal coordinates representation of USCIB to the Executive Branch and Congress on a wide range of trade and investment issues of importance to the U.S. business community. He also oversees the organization's participation in business lobbying and coalition-building efforts.

Mr. Deal came to USCIB in 1996 following a 31-year diplomatic career specializing in economic affairs. Among numerous postings at home and abroad, he was deputy chief of mission at the U.S. Embassy in London, special assistant for national security affairs to President George H.W. Bush and director of the Office of Eastern European Affairs at the Department of State. He also served on the staff of the National Security Council during the Ford, Carter and Reagan administrations.

Mr. Deal serves on the board of directors of Legal and General America, Banner Life Insurance Company of Maryland and William Penn Life Insurance Company of New York. He holds a bachelor's degree in political science from the University of California at Berkeley and pursued graduate study in economics and international relations at American University and San Francisco State College.
