INTERNATIONAL CONTRACTS

Study of a mock case

Negotiating, Drafting, Dispute Resolution,
Different Cultural and Legal Approaches

Dates

Monday 11 – Thursday 14 September 2006

Venue

International Chamber of Commerce

38, Cours Albert 1er
75008 Paris, France

Subject

The success of international business depends on the quality of contracts signed. Too often, if the relationship between parties happens to deteriorate, loopholes in the contract make the situation worse; had the contract been better drafted the relationship could have been preserved. Negotiating and drafting a contract are skills and techniques that need to be learned, as does managing the “post-contract” and dealing with different kinds of conflict resolution.

Planned to meet the practical needs of those involved in international trade, this seminar focuses on the study of a mock case reflecting the reality and practice of international business. Working in small groups in an interactive and multicultural environment, participants from all over the world simulate the negotiation, drafting, and management of an international contract. Through the mock case, this seminar will focus on the main problems that arise in international contracts and particular attention will be given to avoiding disputes. This is a unique opportunity for anyone involved in international business today.

Speakers

The panel of speakers that has been brought together for this seminar is composed of international experts who have great experience, both practical and academic, in international contracts.

Participants

- Business people and corporate counsel from companies involved in international trade;
- Practising lawyers;
- Legal practitioners advising international trading companies.

Earn CPD points from the Law Society & Bar of UK
