

SHAUN DONNELLY

Vice President, Investment & Financial Services

EXPERTISE

- US & Global Trade Policy
- Foreign Direct Investment
- Anti-Corruption

PRESENTATION TOPICS

- Curbing Bribery & Providing a Level Playing Field for International Business - An examination of the latest efforts to curtail bribery and corruption to safeguard U.S. business competitiveness
- How Foreign Investment is Good for America - An insider's view of economic diplomacy and the challenge of promoting beneficial foreign direct investment while supporting national security and job creation
- Transatlantic Trade & Investment Partnership (TTIP): A Status Report - Insight and update on the bi-lateral, comprehensive trade agreement between the EU and U.S., focused on market access, trade regulation and economic growth
- Why We Need Strong Investment Protection - Debunking the myths around Investor-State Dispute Settlement (ISDS), the system for settling investor disputes outside of national courts

BIO

Shaun Donnelly leads USCIB's work on foreign investment policy, treatment of multinational enterprises, financial services and anti-corruption. A career diplomat who has held several senior executive branch posts, Donnelly has helped spearhead business efforts to open markets abroad for American investment and financial services and to promote high standards of protection for cross-border investment, both in the United States and overseas. He joined USCIB in 2011, bringing more than 30 years of experience with the U.S. Department of State in a wide range of roles including: Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary for Economic and Business Affairs; U.S. Ambassador to Sri Lanka; Deputy Assistant Secretary for International Trade; Deputy Chief of Mission at the U.S. Embassy in Tunisia and a detail as Assistant U.S. Trade Representative for Europe and the Middle East. He holds a master's degree from Northwestern University and a bachelor's degree from Lawrence University.