Use of ATA Carnets at the Shanghai 2010 Expo

- 1) ATA Carnets are applicable to the following merchandise:
 - Goods for display at exhibitions, fairs, meetings and similar events;
 - Goods needed for display of overseas products at exhibitions, fairs, meetings and similar events, such as goods needed during the demonstration process for display of overseas machines or instruments;
 - Building or decoration materials used by overseas exhibitors for setting up temporary booths, including electrical devices and advertising or displayed articles for publicity or demonstration of overseas exhibits, such as video tapes, movies, slides and devices;
 - Equipment used at international conferences such as interpreting devices, audio recorders, and movies of an educational, scientific or cultural nature;
 - Other goods approved by the Customs for use at exhibitions.

- 2) ATA Carnets are NOT applicable to performance equipment, journalists reporting equipment and kitchen equipment etc. To confirm which goods will (will not) be accepted on Carnets, contact the Bureau of Shanghai World Expo Coordination. See item 5 below.

- 3) Freight cargo—Customs declaration must be made by one of the following logistics service providers (SP) designated by Expo 2010. The Holder must choose from the following listed SP and provide them the Carnet and appropriate documents. The SP will then contact the Bureau of Shanghai World Expo Coordination to obtain the Certification Letter for Expo Shanghai Cargo. Such certification is necessary for cargo entering the Expo Pavilion and Park.
