

ENGAGING BUSINESS: ADDRESSING CHILD LABOR

February 25, 2009

Remember our objectives for this session

- ▲ Expand our understanding of the topic of Child Labor
- ▲ Use the “brain trust” in the room to identify opportunities to address the issue of Child Labor
- ▲ Define specific next steps that we can take as a business community, including companies, employers’ organizations, ILO, NGOs and government

At your tables, with your facilitator's guidance, please answer these questions:

- ▲ Of all the ideas you have heard today, which ones do you believe are most feasible in combating the issue of Child Labor at national/international levels? Which ones do you believe should be undertaken in 2009 – 2010?

- ▲ What roles should be played in implementing these ideas:
 - Employers
 - Employers' / Business Organizations
 - ILO
 - Governments
 - NGOs and Others

You have one hour to prepare your recommendations

- ▲ You have a facilitator at your table to assist you as a Subject Matter Expert in moving the process forward
- ▲ Please document your recommendations on a flipchart and write your table number at the top of the chart
- ▲ Select one member of your table to report out to the larger group
