

JUSTINE BADIMON

Director, Regional Initiatives

(212) 703-5062, jbadimon@uscib.org, @USCIB_badimon

Justine Bareford-Badimon manages USCIB's work in the Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) forum and on China, European Union and Competition Policy. She coordinates activities on regional policy developments and issues and works closely with USCIB's international affiliates and partners on messaging and relevant activities.

Prior to joining USCIB in 2008, Badimon worked as a paralegal in the international arbitration practice group of a law firm in Paris. She holds a bachelor's degree in political science with minors in French and Italian from Dickinson College, and a master's degree in international relations and geopolitics from the Institut d'Etudes Politiques (Sciences Po) in Toulouse, France. While studying in France, she held an internship at the U.S. Embassy in Paris with the U.S. Foreign Commercial Service and worked as a trade assistant and translator.
