

When an American person or corporation is trying to nominate an arbitrator, mediator, or expert, USCIB provides a list of people from the database.

Today, USCIB is one of three resources provided by the ICC in North America. Questions about the ICC's dispute resolution services including arbitration, mediation, dispute boards or expertise proceeding can be answered by SICANA, ICC North America or us by contacting Nancy M. Thevenin, General Counsel at nthevenin@uscib.org or at 212-703-5047.
